Bringing Children to Christ

I thank God, whom I serve, as my forefathers did, with a clear conscience, as night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers. Recalling your tears, I long to see you, so that I may be filled with joy. I have been reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.

2 Timothy 1:5

“Then he came to Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was Greek. ² He was well spoken of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium. ³ Paul wanted to have him go on with him. And he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Greek.” Acts 16:1-3

The background of the slide features a warm, golden-brown gradient. In the center, there is a large, faint silhouette of a cross. In the foreground, several dark silhouettes of people are shown in various poses, some with their arms raised. Two of these silhouettes are wearing white, featureless masks, while another is wearing a white Guy Fawkes mask. The overall scene suggests a theatrical performance or a group of people in a play.

A ‘Hypocrite’ was an actor who wore a mask in a play to show the character of the person that he was supposed to represent.
