The background of the slide features a warm, golden sunset sky. In the foreground, the silhouettes of several people are visible, their arms raised and hands held together in a gesture of unity or celebration. The overall mood is hopeful and communal.

In today's world parents find themselves at the mercy of a society which imposes pressures and priorities that allow neither timenor place for meaningful activities and relations between children and adults, which downgrade the role of parents and the functions of parenthood, and which prevent the parent from doing things he wants to do as a guide, friend, and companion to his children.

Jethro the Family Man

Exodus 2:16-20

- Priest of Midian (Exodus 2:16).
- Thankful for Moses saving daughters – gave Zipporah to him.
- Let him go back to his people (Exodus 4:18).
- Later brought wife and kids to Moses (Exodus 18:5).
- Gave Him counsel how to lead children of Israel (Exodus 18:19).
- Went back to convert his own family (Exodus 18:11-12;27).

Jethro's Advice

Listen now to my voice; I will give you counsel, and God will be with you: Stand before God for the people, so that you may bring the difficulties to God. And you shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and show them the way in which they must walk and the work they must do.

Moreover you shall select from all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.
